

"At Miracle Farm, I've learned about life and work ethic. My family sees me as more respectful at the house and that I am helping now."

ALEXIS

"Miracle Farm helps guys get a foundation for life and helps shape young men."

BRANDON

"It's not about me. My family sees that I care more about them than myself now."

JARRETT

"Miracle Farm taught me to build the guy beside me up and not tear him down."

ABOUT MIRACLE FARM ...

Miracle Farm is a boys ranch for at-risk teenagers who want to change their lives for the better.

Rooted in Christian faith and western heritage, our one-of-a-kind ranch helps struggling young men experience healing, earn an education, and learn respect.

Through our innovative horse program and on-site academic and vocational training, young men establish and achieve goals for a lifetime and learn to believe in themselves as something more than society has painted them to be.

It all happens in a safe, structured environment where they have the opportunity to turn their lives around and become responsible men.

MIRACLE FARM PROVIDES:

- A supportive, faith-based community
- A trauma-informed approach to care utilizing Trust-Based Relational Intervention® principles
- A residential program that is designed to create a healthy, loving family environment
- Personal guidance and individualized plan for care

- Professional counseling for boys and their families
- A horse program that aids boys in establishing trust and learning responsibility
- An on-site charter school and vocational training program
